Cancellation by you

If you need to cancel your stay we ask that you advise us as soon as possible by email tamsin@tarentaiseproperties.com. In the event of unforeseen circumstances, we would advise you to use your holiday insurance. We will release the dates back to the calendar and in the event the holiday is resold we will refund you the selling price less a 5 % admin fee. Please note that the closer to the date, the less likely to sell at full price. * 10 % non refundable deposit is generally non refundable, unless we are able to resell the same period for the same price. There is a 5 % admin fee on the total price of the reservation (less cleaning and linen fee.)

Cancellation by us

Only in the most extreme circumstances would we ever cancel your reservation, this would be due to flood, fire or damage to a property. In this instance you would be provided with the necessary information and issued a full refund including any credit card fees you paid.

Cancellation due to Pandemic or Governmental restriction

In the event that the resort is closed (ski lifts not operational in winter) if there are departmental or governmental restrictions preventing you from travelling to France or Savoie, we will refund your holiday in full or carry it over to a suitable date. As closures restrictions change regularly we will refund on the normal arrival day. (and not due to expected closures). We are unable to refund for any individual illness, or isolation restrictions. Please ensure you take adequate insurance to cover illness before and during your holiday.

If you have any other questions, please don't hesitate to ask.
